Creating a Stake or Ward Plan

Stake and ward councils can use this planning guide and the accompanying worksheets to create or update emergency response plans (see Handbook 1: Stake Presidents and Bishops [2010], 5.1.3, 5.2.11). Stake and ward plans should be coordinated with plans in the community. Leaders may consider calling welfare specialists to assist with emergency response efforts. The most effective plans are brief and not overly complex. Councils should review and update plans regularly. With the following steps and accompanying worksheets, the stake or ward should be able to create:

- A stake and ward preparedness plan.
- An analysis of needs and action steps.

Step 1: Identify Likely Disasters

List the disasters (natural or man-made) that are most likely to occur in your area. For each type of disaster, identify specific response actions that would be needed. (For example, in a disaster that can damage homes—such as an earthquake, fire, flood, or hurricane—a key action would be to find temporary shelter for displaced families.)

* Use the Disaster Review and Planning for Disruptions worksheets to complete this step.

Step 2: Gather Critical Information

Compile and maintain the following information:

- Contact data for all members and missionaries living within stake or ward boundaries.
- A map of the area, including the locations of member and missionary residences and resource locations in the community. (Consider using maps.lds.org or LDS Tools to assist with this task.)
- A list of members with special needs, such as the disabled and the elderly.
- A list of members with equipment or skills (such as medical or emergency response training) that would be critical in a disaster.
- Contact information for public safety agencies (such as police, fire, or medical).
- Contact information for community organizations (such as the Red Cross or Red Crescent) that provide emergency services such as food, shelter, and medical care.
- Contact information for area welfare leaders and, where available, local Church welfare operations.

* Use the Critical Information worksheets and the Actions and Assignments worksheet to complete this step.

Step 3: Outline Assignments and Procedures

Plan how the council will organize and carry out each of the tasks listed below, identifying who will be responsible for each task and what procedures they will follow. Designate a primary and an alternate central location where council members will gather after an emergency to direct relief efforts.

Prior to a disaster:

- Develop working relationships with civil authorities and other community relief organizations.

Immediately after a disaster:

- Determine and report the condition of members and missionaries. Reports on member needs generally come from ministering brothers and sisters to the elders quorum and Relief Society leaders, who then report them to the bishop. Bishops, in turn, report them to the stake president.
- Help to locate and reunite family members who have become separated.
- Obtain medical care for those who have been injured or who have other health challenges.
- Coordinate response efforts with civil authorities and community relief organizations.

- Assess needs and arrange for the supply of basic provisions and services—such as food, temporary shelter, sanitation, and clothing—for members and others. Area welfare leaders and, where available, Church welfare operations can be called upon to assist with provisions and services.

- Determine and report the condition of Church buildings and property.

In the period following a disaster:

- Provide assistance to members who have suffered damage to homes or belongings, emotional trauma, or loss of livelihood.
- Work with civil authorities and relief organizations to identify and respond to opportunities for the Church to assist with community needs.

* Use the Critical Information worksheets and Actions and Assignments worksheet to complete this step.

Step 4: Identify Emergency Communication Methods

A key part of disaster response is for Church leaders to have open lines of communication with Church headquarters, Church members, and community leaders.

Identify and plan for alternative communication methods that can be used in case phone lines, cellular phone service, or vehicle transportation routes are disrupted during a disaster.

Such methods may include:

- Internet communications (including email, social media, and instant messaging).
- Text messaging via cellular phone (which may be available even if voice service is not).
- Amateur radio.
- Personal contact via foot, bicycle, and so forth. (Full-time missionaries can also help.)

As needed, priesthood leaders may call members of their units to be communication specialists. Qualified specialists often own communications equipment and possess valuable experience.

* Refer to the Disaster Review and Planning for Disruptions worksheets to plan for communication disruptions. Use the Critical Information—Equipment, Skills, and Communication Resources worksheet to complete this step.

Step 5: Encourage Member Preparation

Regularly encourage members to engage in preparedness efforts and to follow the counsel outlined in Family Preparedness and the pamphlets All Is Safely Gathered In: Family Home Storage (04008) and All Is Safely Gathered In: Family Finances (04007).

Channels for doing this might include:

- Elders quorum and Relief Society meetings.
- Sacrament meeting or stake conference talks.
- Messages from ministering brothers and sisters.

* Refer to the stake or ward plan and accompanying worksheets when presenting to ward members.

Worksheets

Stake and ward councils may use the stake and ward emergency planning worksheets to create or update their emergency response plans.

Use the following worksheets to help you with your plan:

- Disaster Review
- Planning for Disruptions
- Critical Information—Members with Special Needs
- Critical Information—Equipment, Skills, and Communication Resources
- Critical Information—Services

DISASTER REVIEW

Identify and list which disasters are likely to occur in your area. Then place a check mark in the box for each disruption that would likely be caused by each disaster. Then tally the total number of disruptions in each column for all likely disasters. Choose the disruption with the high-est number to prioritize planning efforts.

PLANNING FOR DISRUPTIONS

This worksheet is used to begin immediate and long-term planning efforts. Choose a disruption from the Disaster Review worksheet and identify resources you will need to respond for each time frame. For example, if the disruption is damage to homes, a short-term need could be using a meetinghouse for shelter, a mid-term need could be performing minor repairs to homes or purchasing tents, and a long-term need could be constructing more permanent shelters. Use the Actions and Assignments worksheet to plan how to gain access to needed resources. Complete a new worksheet for each disruption.

ACTIONS AND ASSIGNMENTS

As you complete your emergency plan, you may notice that there are areas of concern or gaps where you do not have the resources, contacts, or information you need. Use the Actions and Assignments worksheet to identify where you can improve your plan. Then make assignments in the stake or ward council and define a completion date.
